

CHICAGO NEWS IN BRIEF

Police responding to burglar alarm at Dearborn and Chicago avs. were made targets of by burglar who had fled to roof. No one hurt. Burglar escaped without loot.

John Guther, 667 Fay st., and Barney Rabach, 619 Fay st., robbed of 80 cents by two men who were later arrested.

Mrs. L. B. Dixon, 1905 W. Lake st., seriously injured by Lake street car. Hospital.

James Stephens, 2256 Washburne av., teamster, severely hurt in collision between his wagon and a Van Buren street car. Hospital.

Lloyd Simpson, advertising man, arrested and fined for speeding when rushing cops out to capture auto bandits. Sent bill for $15 to Chief McWeeny for auto hire. Chief has not decided to pay.

Edward A. Schrieber, 4949 W. Huron st., found dead in house after fire had been put out. Died either by fire, drowning or asphyxiation.

Dr. E. C. Miller, with offices in Chicago Savings Bank Building, arrested charged with duping farmers on a fake heart disease cure netting him $30,000.

Mrs. Albert Palmer dying in hospital in Hammond, Ind. Caused from wondering why her husband doesn't come and see her. He is in jail at Joliet on charge of attacking his daughter, 6. Mother does not know of his arrest.

12 cases of smallpox found in family of Chas. Baldwin, 4828 W. Fulton st.

James Marek, ironworker, fined $100 and costs during strike at Otis Elevator Co.'s plant in July, 1909, for intimidating a worker. Found out yesterday he had not yet paid the fine. Sent to House of Correction.

Mrs. Jennie Smith, 48, 1615 Wells st., shot and killed by Hugh Boehm, 54, widower, 2015 Clifton av., in rooming house at 640 N. Clark st. Arrested. Tried suicide. Missed.

Revolver Peter Real, 30, 854 W. Madison st., was carrying to pawn shop went off in his pocket. Dying.

Cubist coiffure is latest hairdressing art here. Looks like a square doughnut.

Mrs. Urbally Holvay said it was nothing for her husband to drink three and one-half gallons of rum a day. Wants divorce.

Miss Ida Terra, young circus acrobat, fell from top of Coliseum before eyes of 10,000 spectators. Slightly injured.

F. W. Tutt, 60, 505 W. 79th st., suicide. Gas.

Mrs. Lucille Cameron Johnson, white wife of Jack Johnson is at Wesley Hospital. Operation may be performed. Condition not serious.

Michael Maloney, farm hand, stricken with heart failure. Ran for doctor. Died on the physician's steps.

Ethel Pien, 2, daughter of Chief of Police Henry Pien, Melrose Park, died of scarlet fever. His seven other children have it. Family quarantined.

Joseph Berg, 628 Belmont av., driver of Chicago Ry. Co.'s street car victim ambulance, arrested for speeding. Case continued to April 11.

O. W. Schnediger, 34, 1041 W. Monroe st., seriously injured when gas tank exploded in plant of Walker Vehicle Co., 215-17 S. Green st.

A. Weiss & Co., owners of restaurant, 25 E. Randolph st., fined $100 and costs for violation of ten-hour law.

AFTER THE SWAT

By Tom Jackson.

Spring is the time to swat the fly.
And when you've swatted all,
Go forth and make arrangements for
New paper for the wall.